The War Today..

The Case of Spain

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign News Analyst

ONE OF THE CRITICAL and delicate cases likely to be considered at the coming clinic of Doctors Truman, Stalin and Churchill — physicians extraordinary to the world — is that of Spain, the problem being what measures are necessary to purge this proud and important country of the Axis plague.

The way things stand now, it looks very much as though the cure of Spain's ills lies in a change of government. Support for that idea is seen in the action of a commission at the San Francisco security conference — the commission having voted that the Franco regime, because it had Axis support in coming to power, should never be admitted to membership. That's a broad hint, to say the least.

Now of course it would be easy for the Big Three to treat Spain's malady roughly. A lot of folk are asking why the United Nations should be considerate in the case of Spain when we have just fought the bloodiest war of history to exterminate Nazism and Fascism. Why not use the big stick?

The answer isn't quite so easy as that. After all, sovereignty is the mightiest item among the many nations, great and small, which come so close to slavery at the hands of the Axis. The Big Three undoubtedly would prefer that Spain cure herself. That attitude has been pursued even in the case of Italy.

Here it should be emphasized that there is a difference between "Spain" and the Franco falange party which is in power. The generalissimo consorted with Hitler and Mussolini throughout the war, something which, none of the United Nations can forgive. Apart from that Moscow won't soon forget that the Franco regime has been violently anti-Communist from the start and was pitted against the Communists in the civil war that brought him to power.

Britain, while roundly condemning Madrid's dealings with Hitler and Mussolini, has more than once shown a desire to give Spain a chance to rehabilitate herself. Prime Minister Churchill gave an indication of that last year when he told commons that he looked forward to increasingly good relations with Spain and to "an extremely fertile trade between Spain and this country (Britain)" during the war and after the peace.

That brought Mr. Churchill some sharp criticism from his own people, and his kindly words "as they came to be described in the press, also caused some speculation in America and other countries.

An Army training plane, flown by 1st Lt. W. R. Aiken of Napier field, Ala., was forced down at 12:30 p. m. yesterday on the H. H. Noll farm, four miles south of Salem, along Route 45.

The plane was damaged slightly and the pilot unhurt, state patrolmen said. The pilot said he was enroute from Tiffin to Pittsburgh, Pa. when his motor went bad.

Representatives of the Civil Air Patrol from Youngstown guarded the ship last night. It was to be moved out today by military crews from Cleveland.

Pfc. Kermit D. Johns, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johns, 753 E. Third st., was killed in action on Okinawa June 11 while serving with the 383rd Infantry, Co. B, of the 96th Division, his family was informed last week.

Overseas for the past five months, he was a graduate of Salem High school, where he served as track manager. He had been awarded the Bronze Star medal for heroism in action only a few days before his death.

PHONE STRIKE HITS WARREN

Operators There and At Newton Falls To Quit On Monday

(By Associated Press)

Ohio's rash of labor disputes spread to Warren today as telephone operators there and in neighboring Newton Falls prepared to walkout at 10 a. m. Monday.

Other sore spots — Akron, where 16,500 CIO-United Rubber Workers continued their 13-day-old strike at the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. in defiance of War Labor board directives, and Toledo, where 5,500 CIO-United Automobile workers remained idle at the Spicer Manufacturing Corp. — showed no indications of healing despite WLB promises of drastic treatment.

The Warren operators, members of the AFL-International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, voted 108 to 1 for strike action in a National Labor Relations board election yesterday.

Local President Margaret Patterson said they would leave their jobs Monday following presentation of a written notice to the Warren Telephone Co. skeleton crews would remain to handle emergency calls, she added.

The union contended the pay scale was too low. As a result, it declared, many operators took other jobs so the traffic burden was too heavy for the remaining experienced help to carry. Beginning operators, the brotherhood reported, were paid 56 cents an hour and those with six or more years experience 77 cents.

Company President Ralph Mater in a statement said the union demanded a 20-cent-an-hour increase which the company countered with a five-cent-an-hour jump offer. The dispute also involves Sunday pay, vacation and closed shop issues.

Spicer local UAW officials face a regional WLB "show cause" hearing in Cleveland today. The stoppage, which has affected production of jeeps at the neighboring Willys-Overland Motors, Inc. plant, began July 5 among the company's office workers following the discharge of an employee. The 6,000 production workers refused to cross the office employees' picket lines.

PILOT KILLED, BOY HURT IN CRACKUP

CANTON, July 13.—Pvt. John P. Tucker, 18, home on furlough, was killed and Robert Benz, 16, was seriously injured in an airplane crash northwest of Canton Thursday on the Nellie Switzer farm near Middlebranch.

Stark county deputy sheriffs reported that Pvt. Tucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker had taken off alone from the Martin airport near here in a training plane.

It was not determined where he had taken on young Benz as a passenger, the deputies said.

The two youths lived near the airport and had been companions since before Pvt. Tucker joined the army last February.

He was a licensed pilot, an official at the airport said.

BRITISH RAID NICOBAR, HINT INVASION MOVE

Fleet Shells Strategic Islands In Northwest Sumatra Today

(By Associated Press)

CALCUTTA, July 13.—British fleet units have bombarded the strategic Nicobar islands while carrier planes attacked airfields in northwest Sumatra, Southeast Asia command headquarters announced tonight in a special communique.

British minesweepers swept the approaches to Malacca strait, which lies between Sumatra and the great naval base of Singapore, from July 5 to 10 without sighting a Japanese vessel.

While fleet units attacked the Nicobars, planes also laid their explosives on the islands. The Nicobars lie 280 miles northwest of Sumatra, rich Dutch oil producing island, and about 900 miles off Singapore. They are 400 miles west of the Kra peninsula of Malaya, linking Singapore to the mainland of Asia.

Rear Adm. W. R. Patterson commanded the attacking warships—the Fifth cruiser squadron—which included the Cruiser Nigeria, the Carrier Ameer and Emperor, the destroyer Roebuck and the Sixth minesweeping flotilla.

Japanese broadcasts, first to tell of the attacks on the Nicobars, speculated that a landing attempt would be made.

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The motor mine sweeper YMS-39 has been lost in the Borneo area as a result of enemy action, the Navy announced today.

Casualties among her wartime complement of 35 officers and men totaled five, including three killed, one wounded and one missing. All casualties were enlisted men.

The loss raised to 322 the total of naval vessels lost from all causes since the start of the war.

OPA Blueprints Plan To Remove Controls On Price Ceilings

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 13.—An OPA blueprint for the first step toward lifting price controls is being studied today by Stabilization Director William H. Davis.

The plan sets up standards which would permit immediate elimination of ceilings on a number of commodities. Others would be freed as certain conditions were met.

Officials familiar with the proposal, which requires Davis' approval, said it provides for removal or suspension of price controls on these grounds:

1. Where a commodity is in sufficient supply to eliminate danger of inflationary prices. In general this would cover items selling substantially under the ceiling.
2. If an article is of small importance to the civilian economy, or the maintenance of ceilings is an administrative job out of proportion to the effect a higher price could have on the cost of living.

An OPA official predicted a "very large number" of items probably would fit the pattern.

Under the first standard aluminum was mentioned as one of the first raw materials that might be removed from controls, with products made from that metal following as supply caught up with demand.

Under the second, immediate release from ceilings might be ordered for jewelry, for example, or for such beverages as rum, brandy and cordials.

Officials emphasized the proposed plan does not deal with removal of controls on major consumer and industrial commodities expected to remain in short supply for some time. Clothing, for example, and consumer products being made again for the first time since Pearl Harbor, are slated to stay under ceilings for many months, they said.

FATE OF GERMAN HIGH STAFF WILL BE DECIDED SOON

(By Associated Press)

FRANKFURT, July 13.—General Eisenhower and Field Marshal Montgomery are expected to decide soon on what to do with the German general staff.

At midnight tonight Supreme headquarters of the Allied expeditionary force will be dissolved, but the problem of handling the hundreds of high ranking staff and field officers of the German army who are prisoners of the Allies awaits disposition.

British and American officers discussed the matter informally during Eisenhower's absence.

These conversations touched on the possibility of breaking up the German general staff and condemning its members to exile in British crown colonies throughout the world.

Of the captured German military hierarchy one SHAEF officer said: "Some of them ought to be shot as criminals and undoubtedly will be. Others must be regarded purely as military figures who carried out military orders."

However, the general staff in Germany is a special clique, almost hereditary.

"They are the ones who plan and execute wars."

"I can promise you this—the German general staff will be broken up and destroyed so that it can never function again."

BEGIN 3 STREET JOBS ON MONDAY

The Salem service department will begin a slag resurfacing of Euclid, Perry and Aetna streets early Monday morning, Service Director Frank Wilson announced today.

The new coat, similar to ones laid on Franklin, Woodland, Washington and S. Union avenues last summer, will be applied by an out of town concern with assistance from city workers.

Wilson said absolutely no parking nor traffic will be allowed on those streets, between S. Lincoln and S. Broadway either Monday or Tuesday morning. Residents are urged to have their cars off the streets before Monday morning. The streets will be posted and blocked.

Slag resurfacing of E. Tenth st. was completed yesterday by the county. The city purchased the material for this job.

Adm. Halsey's Fleet, Damaged By Typhoon, Back In Action

BY LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, July 13.—A raging typhoon lashed Adm. William F. (Bull) Halsey's Third fleet with 138 mile an hour winds last June 5, tore the bow off the Cruiser Pittsburgh and damaged at least 20 other warships, Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced today after virtually every damaged ship was back in action.

At least four of the damaged ships—the Battleships Massachusetts and Indiana, the Carrier San Jacinto, and the Destroyer John Rodgers—participated in last Tuesday's 1,000 plane carrier strike at Tokyo.

The Typhoon damaged more ships than the Japanese navy has been able to do in any single battle. But Nimitz made no mention of anyone being killed or seriously injured. He said no ships were sunk.

20 Ships Damaged

He listed 20 damaged ships as back in action, including three fast new battleships and two Essex class carriers.

The Cruiser Pittsburgh, which miraculously stayed afloat, is being refitted for action.

The Nimitz announcement did not specify where the typhoon struck the Third fleet but presumably it was in the western Pacific between Okinawa and the Philippines.

Last Dec. 18 another typhoon struck the Third fleet between the Philippines and the Marianas and three destroyers were lost in the violent seas.

Most of the personnel of the Destroyers Monaghan, Hull and Spence were lost.

A board of inquiry headed by Vice Adm. John H. Hoover was named to investigate. There has been no announcement of the board's report.

Many of the ships were badly hurt by towering 100 foot high seas. None was more heavily hit than the fast, new heavy Cruiser Pittsburgh, which was caught near the center of the storm off the Tyukyu islands.

Believe Japs Holding Back Air Reserves

(By The Associated Press)

GUAM, July 13.—Virtually unopposed air blows by around 700 B-29s, heavy and medium bombers, fighters and long-range search planes across a 770-mile arc of Japan, extending north and south of Tokyo, were announced today.

As enemy homeland factories and railroads were wrecked and even the smallest shipping sunk offshore, Brig. Gen. David F. Hutchison of the Far East air force told Associated Press Correspondent Richard Cushing at Okinawa that Japan obviously was hoarding planes, to use in suicide tactics when Yank infantrymen storm Nippon's invasion beaches.

Rear Adm. D. C. Ramsey, new chief of staff of the Fifth fleet, estimated Japan might have 9,000 planes available and probably could throw about 4,000 into the battle over Japan.

One weak fighter opposition was encountered over Tokyo bay and a city to the north as Superforts dumped 3,000 tons of bombs on five homeland centers before dawn today, returning pilots reported.

No enemy fighters could be found aloft yesterday as more than 120 Liberator and Mitchell bombers and escorting fighters from Okinawa ripped into factories and railroads, the port of Aburatsubo and the naval air station of Kanoya on Kyushu.

The enemy air force relinquished homeland skies so completely that search planes flew nearly 200 miles north of Tokyo to hit small supplies off Sendai, then returned to Iwo—a roundtrip flight of nearly 2,000 miles.

Reports of Strikes

Superfort crews brought back these reports:

Kawasaki oil center on reclaimed island in Tokyo bay—Seven big fires started, very slight enemy attempt at interception.

Tsushima—"A steady red glow" started at that embarkation port for troops bound for Korea and Manchuria.

Utsunomiya—Weak air opposition brushed aside at that trade and transport center; raiders fought 60-mile-an-hour wind.

Ichihomiya—Incendiaries spilled through clouds on the war industry city nine miles northwest of Nagoya.

Uwajima—Flashes of fire bombs view with "St. Elmo's fire" (static electricity) over that port and war production center. Rain storm lifted one B-29 4,000 feet.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz disclosed today hunting for enemy shipping off southern Japan became so poor his fleet search planes joined yesterday in tearing up railroads on Kyushu, hitting trains, destroying a factory and damaging another.

Nimitz today said nothing more about the United States Third fleet which sent more than 1,000 carrier planes against the Tokyo area Tuesday but enemy broadcasts heard in Guam warned more such blows were in the offing.

(A dispatch from the Cruiser Augusta in the Atlantic reporting that President Truman was in touch hourly with the Third fleet also hinted new blows were to be expected.)

Naval Air Station Hit

MacArthur said this force was "in the process of deployment to forward bases to participate in the air saturation of Japan." This force includes Liberator heavy bombers and Mitchell mediums.

(A dispatch from Guam today told of a blow against a naval air station in Japan by more than 100 Liberators and Mitchells which may have been part of the Seventh air force.)

Status of the Seventh fighter command, based on Iwo Jima, was not made clear. Much of its work has involved escorting Superfortresses of the Strategic air forces over Japan.

Kenney's Far Eastern air forces already included the Fifth and 13th air forces. Elements of the Fifth have been operating against Japan recently from new Okinawa bases, but others of the Fifth and 13th are still active in the Southwest Pacific area.

"As soon as we are in position we will attack Japan from 10,000 feet and from 10 feet, with fire and explosives, with bombers and fighters—and we will do it 24 hours a day," declared Kenney.

Brig. Gen. David F. Hutchison, at present commander of the Far Eastern air forces already on Okinawa, said in an interview there that "in my opinion the Japs don't intend to engage us in the air."

Kenney, whose then-small air force made history in March, 1943, by sinking every one of a 22-shell Japanese troop convoy in the Bismarck sea, remarked on the numerous American tactical air innovations, such as the parachute-borne "parafrag" bomb, which he helped develop, and declared "we have got still more tricks up our sleeve."

Newsman — the scene said the Army plane plodded two miles from the point of collision, taking one occupant to his death. A second was killed in an attempt to parachute and a third flier was uninjured in his successful jump.

Who's Driving?

One circumstance emerging from the give-and-take of industrial disputes—a circumstance that may be more important than the issues being argued—is the absence of authority.

War Labor Board, nominally the agency of government responsible for handling industrial disputes, finds its authority challenged openly, frequently with the result that military authority must be invoked to save the government's face.

The highest-ranking union authorities, meanwhile, find their no-strike pledge, which Chairman Taylor of WLB calls the "whole basis of the industrial relations program," repudiated by many of the unions in whose name the pledge was made.

At the same time, lesser officials with direct responsibility for administration of union units have been admitting in some cases that their authority is being repudiated by minorities in the membership.

Management spokesmen, of course, assume that the public knows their status in industrial relations; they are barred legally from trying to exert any authority; collective bargaining finds them in an intermediary position between the unions and government.

In other words, the question is no longer where industrial relations are going, but who's driving. It looks sometimes as if no one knew.

Methods of Freedom

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau's announcement that the Seventh War Loan reached a total of $26,313,000,000 is his vaudeville act as the public official who presided over a historic financial experiment.

The outcome lies in the future. The ultimate effect of deficit financing and its acceleration after war began remains to be seen. Sales in all War Bond drives to date stand at the stupendous total of $135,749,000,000, with $38,483,000,000 of that sum represented by individual purchases. This deferred buying power in the hands of consumers is being depended on to stabilize national economy in the postwar years and to maintain a rate of national income sufficient to meet carrying and reduction charges on the national debt, now approaching 260 billion dollars.

Mr. Morgenthau's successor—and successors—will have to wrestle with this gigantic figure, to be increased still further by additional deficits caused by wartime spending. The debt and the annual deficits of which it is composed will be the fundamental problem of the nation for many years to come. There will be many occasions to review the events of Mr. Morgenthau's long administration of the Treasury department. One statement in his vocabulary might well be carved on some blank wall in the department: "Whatever the tasks, whatever the problems of the future, I know that we shall meet and overcome them as we have in the past through the methods of freedom, through the voluntary unity of free men."

Unconditional Defeat

Acting Secretary of State Grew's declaration that Japan has made no proper peace offer to this government and that peace "feelings" are an attempt to break down American morale does not answer the questions being asked about our unconditional surrender.

The public is mindful of the conditions of "unconditional" surrender implied by the statement following the Cairo conference late in 1943: that Japan must be stripped of Pacific islands seized or occupied since 1914, of all territory taken from China and that it must abandon all other territory taken "by violence and greed," including Korea. If these conditions, specified by President Roosevelt, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and Prime Minister Churchill, were met, what then would be the status of Japan? Would it be forced to fight on to unconditional defeat, or could it then sue for surrender with a fair chance of success?

The public has no wish to handicap the State department in its handling of the matter, much less to handicap the armed forces in their duties. But the apparent policy of inflicting punishment on Japan until its military clique is powerless to continue the war, with no alternate prospect of surrender short of extinction, is certain to cause questions. If the government's intention is to inflict unconditional defeat, that should be made clear. It would mean that surrender had been ruled out as the possibility it apparently was held to be at the time of the Cairo conference.

The Farmer Does It Again

If there is any farm problem which might stump the American farmer completely we, for one, won't undertake to say what it might be.

Time and again, especially during the world emergency, he has faced "insoluble" problems. He has been called upon repeatedly to do things that, by all rules of logic, simply couldn't be done. Confronted with labor and manpower shortages unparalleled, he has been asked to produce as farmers never have produced before. Yet he has done just that—a statement that applies to American farmers everywhere.

Thus, only because farmers have done the impossible so often before, it becomes less astonishing that the nation's wheat growers have refused to be licked by problems resulting from the biggest crop and the worst shortages of storage and transportation facilities in history. In one way or another, he is managing to hold to miraculously low levels the wheat losses that could easily have reached disaster proportions.

We don't pretend to know how he has done it—just as we don't know how he has done the "impossible" so often in the past. But it might be simply that the word "impossible" doesn't appear in the dictionary the American farmer uses.

DECISIVE and aggressive actions, with well-directed energies and constructive methods, are likely to form an excellent combination for putting over large projects or steadily and effectively furthering important issues of far-reaching and benefic bearing on the fortunes and future stability and well being as well as happiness.

Affairs may move under high pressure, with clever plans and practical and aggressive measures, but in all beware of any excess that might beget accident, loss or estrangement. Subdue impetuosity and wild tensions for best results. Be ready for important association with those in high places, although agreements may be secret or tacit.

Those whose birthday it is may find themselves in a year in which they contact or function in "seats of the mighty," although such prestige and power may be kept secret or undercover for the time being. Ingenuity, skill of a mechanical or constructive quality, developed with practical and sound tactics, may move decisively and under high tempo to important goals, or through diligence and understanding bring live issues to gratifying culmination. However, there are hints of loss, accident, sudden change or estrangements, for ill-considered or careless actions, with explosive or turbulent emotional behavior.

A child born on this day may have great energy and skill, with which industry, practical and persistent application may bring excellent accomplishment and approbation from those in high places.

Postponement Only

Everyone can appreciate and sympathize with the bitter disappointment which results when soldiers are transferred from the European to the Pacific Theaters of operations without visit or furlough home. Words are futile as consolation in such cases.

But it is encouraging to believe that this dark cloud has its silver lining. While no official guarantees may have been given, the supposition seems justified that, on the whole, the first to be sent into the Pacific will be the first to return. And when they return, they will remain. For them, it will not be merely a pause between battles.

Another heartening consideration is that most such transfers are of men engaged in duties other than actual combat. Casualties among them are likely to be much fewer than among the combat forces. And this statement does not disparage in slightest degree the importance of the duties they perform.

So, about all that can be said to those who are disappointed is: Try to be patient. In the vast majority of cases, the happiness of reunion has not been denied. It merely has been postponed.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Pain Over Heart Is Explained

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

PERSONS who suffer pain over the heart are concerned immediately about heart disease, and it is true that there are certain heart conditions in which pain over the heart is a common symptom. These include coronary thrombosis or the formation of a blood clot in one of the coronary arteries which supply the heart muscle with blood, and angina pectoris, a condition which is due to lessening of the flow of blood through the coronary arteries, or spasms of these blood vessels, or other conditions.

But every heart pain does not always mean heart trouble. One of the common conditions which may cause attacks of pain over the heart which are like those of angina pectoris or coronary thrombosis is gallbladder disease. Doctor Julius Jensen of Washington University School of Medicine reports a patient who had attacks which were quite like those of angina pectoris. However, careful examination of the heart revealed that it was normal in every respect. Careful study showed that the patient had gallstones and, after they were removed by operation, the attacks of pain over the heart disappeared.

Direct Irritation

Direct irritation of the nerves of the skin in the chest over the heart area may also produce symptoms like those in angina pectoris. The most common cause for this irritation is probably arthritis of the spine. The pain in these cases may be quite severe and made worse by exercise, just as happens in angina pectoris.

Another less common cause for such nerve pain is shingles or herpes zoster. Still another group of patients who may develop pain over the heart are those who have some inflammation of the membranes in the chest, such as the pleura which lines the chest cavity, or the mediastinum, which is the membrane surrounding the tissues in the middle of the chest, in which the heart and other structures are located. Even in such cases attacks of acute indigestion, there may be pain over the heart.

Careful Study

Thus it can be seen that when so-called "heart pain" occurs there is need for a careful study to determine the source of the difficulty. An electrocardiogram, or electrical tracing of the heart beat, should be made, which will help to give some evidence as to whether or not the heart has been damaged. An X-ray of the heart is also helpful.

Correspondents Tell of Interesting Island War Happenings

BY BONNIE WILEY
KINAWA—School attendance Okinawa is being enforced by American military government. They line the roads, under. They are kept in school, beg- for candy with outstretched nds. In a school, they are being taught speak English as well as Jap-ese.

Lt. Leroy Brown, former naval superintendent at Heflin, is in charge of one of the best schools, located in a hatched-roof building of Kuga- sage. The sides are open. It has grass floors and no furniture. Brown said the children were eager to speak English because they like Americans.

"They like school so much," he added, "they want to be here all the time."

Class of 800
"We have no books, few pencils, little paper and one black-board— for 800 pupils. But after two weeks, most of them have learned the English alphabet and the names of the days of the week."

"We have nine native women teachers and two native men," said one of the native principals. "I thought the American way of teaching was an improvement over the Japanese methods, which had emphasized bayonet and sword drills and ju jitsu. The principal, who has been teaching 32 years, declared: 'I teach my students re- spect and to be kind.'"

Writing, reading, arithmetic, singing and obedience are stressed under AMG, with bayonets, swords and ju jitsu discarded.

The little natives are instructed in sanitation by John W. Fowler, a navy shipfitter of Newport News, Va.

"These kids," he declared, "are anxious to learn American ways and prefer me with questions all the time. They will keep themselves clean whenever they have the water to wash with."

Youths Prevent Rail Tragedy

Eugene Caudell, 11, left, and Bobby Nolan, 13, of Prince Georges county, Md., gave the alarm which resulted in flagging the Ambassa- dor limited of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad 90 seconds before it would have crashed into the tree trunk on which they are sitting. The boys saw tree felled across tracks by lightning and notified station agent, who flagged train. Rail officials promised "a surprise" for the youths. (NEA Telephoto)

Tin Shortage Is Car Makers Highest Reconversion Hurdle

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The tin shortage stood out today as the auto industry's highest reconversion hurdle.

Other material shortages face the automobile makers, but they either are less drastic or can be overcome at least in part by substitutions. But no tin is available for body solder.

After meeting with the industry advisory committee yesterday to discuss the materials situation, Henry P. Nelson of the War Production board told reporters:

"We challenged the industry to find some substitute for tin. That looks like a serious problem."

Nelson said there are the other shortages, in order of their impor- tance:

Cadmium for plating. Zinc, how- ever, may be used as a substitute.

Antimony, a substitute for tin, which can be checked off if a sub- stitute for tin is found.

Burlap and cotton liners. Nelson does not regard these shortages as "too serious," since substitutes can be used.

Chromic acid, used chiefly for plating or "bright work." Chromic acid may be used for functional parts, but not for decorative pur- poses, and this may mean, lacking a suitable substitute, that the new cars will lack some of the luster of the pre-war models.

Rationing End Seen
The outlook for other materials, including sheet steel and chemicals, Nelson described as "pretty good." While sheet steel still is "tight,"

Questions and Answers On Problems of the Ser- vicemen

WASHINGTON—Servicemen and veterans have many questions about filling out claim forms and the Veterans Administration in general. Here are some typical ones:

Q. I want to enter a claim for what I believe to be a service-connected disability. In writing to Veterans Administration, what information should I give them to have the claim started through the mill?

A. State your full name as given on your discharge papers, your grade and organization, serial num- ber, date of entrance into service, date of discharge, date and place of birth. Once the claim is filed it will be assigned a number which must be used in all future com- munication and reference to it.

Q. In answering questions on veter- ans' problems it is usually sug- gested that we go to our nearest office of Veterans Administration. How do you go about finding that nearest office?

A. Your Selective Service local board should be able to tell you where the nearest VA office is lo- cated. If you can't get that infor- mation there, try the local post office, refer to your telephone book under "United States—Veterans Administration in Washington for the address."

I am interested in buying some surplus property items and need in- formation about my back income tax. They tell me that I have to write to Veterans Administration first and that agency will handle all problems connected with the Government for me. Is that true?

A. Veterans Administration will advise you as to contact for special problems, but if you know already you do not have to clear it through VA. For surplus property, contact Smaller War Plants Corporation, and for your income tax, address your query to the Bureau of In- ternal Revenue.

Columbiana Man Files Suit After Park Fall

LISBON, July 13.—Homer Thomas of 134 Union st., Columbiana, has filed suit against the village of Co- lumbiana, asking a judgment of $10,000.

Thomas charges that on July 20, 1941, his wife, Vida, was injured when she attempted to cross a gut- ter at Firestone park, the cross walk of the gutter being an iron sewer covering which was used as a foot bridge. He claims that the village showed negligence in allowing the sewer covering to become loose so that it tipped easily when pressure was put upon it. Mrs. Thomas was thrown into the catch basin of the sewer and suffered bruises, contu- sions, sprained muscles, nerves and ligaments of the left ankle and leg, left knee, left hip, left side and back, he charges.

TAYLORCRAFT EYES CIVILIAN MARKET

ALLIANCE, July 13—Civilian airplanes will be on the market by fall, says the Taylorcraft Aviation Corp.

A two-passenger private model, known as the "Troubadour," already is on assembly lines, the company announced today, adding, full production was expected by September. The two-person, side-by-side standard monoplane, equipped with a 65-horsepower engine, will sell for approximately $2,295.

Taylorcraft also reported a family sedan-type plane, to be called the "tourist" should be in full production by December and on the market early next year. A four-passenger ship, it will sell for $3,590 equipped with a 125-horsepower engine and $4,000 with a 140-h.p. engine.

The company said these planes were being constructed in a branch factory since Taylorcraft's main plant is manufacturing control surfaces for the Douglas A120 bomber. Eventually, it plans to produce 8,000 to 10,000 planes annually.

SALES TAX STUDY FOR SENATE BEGINS

(By Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, July 13.—The State department of Taxation today began a study of the sales tax, to obtain information that will help the Ohio senate decide whether the three per cent levy should be reduced.

A report on the findings, requested by a senate resolution, will be ready by next Jan. 1.

Revenue from the sales tax has been increasing annually since it was established in 1935 and reached a peak of $64,237,000 last year.

Early this year C. Emory Glander, tax commissioner estimated the yield in 1945 at $62,500,000 for the sales tax, and $1,250,000 for the accompanying use tax of three per cent.

An increase in sales of prepaid tax stamps during the first half of this year, however, may necessitate an upward revision of his estimates for 1945.

Relax Job Changing For Unqualified Men Over 26

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Men 26 or over who do not meet the Army's physical standards are free today to change jobs without draft board permission.
At the request of the Army, Selective Service last night relaxed its regulations to exclude these men from the possibility of induction as job-jumpers.
Heretofore these registrants who switched employment without approval of their board could be drafted for limited army service.
The job-jumper penalties remain in effect for all physically fit men, as well as for registrants under 26 who fall shy of regular requirements.
Men in the latter group who fail to clear job changes will continue to be inducted under relaxed physical standards.
Older men freed of clearance responsibility are those classified in 4-F, 2-A (F), 2-A (L), 2-B (F) and 2-B (L).
The Army was understood to have requested the change because it opposes any substantial increase in the number of its men not qualified for combat duty.

Steel Output Unchanged

YOUNGSTOWN, July 13.—Steel

Steelmakers say the manpower problem still is serious. Men laid off at fabricating plants have not yet taken jobs at lower wages in steel plants, officials say.

other correspondents reported.
Planes on one small escort carrier "were flipped around like bean-bags, tossed into the air and over end and piled in a jumbled heap of wreckage," said Associated Press Correspondent Grant MacDonald.
The forward end of her flight deck was ripped up and left dangling over the bow.

Correspondent William Marien of the Sydney, Australia, Morning Herald, aboard the Carrier Hornet during the storm, said gigantic waves pounded hammer blows on the flight deck 60 feet above the ship's normal waterline.

The waves crashed about 25 feet of the flight deck over the bow.
When the storm abated, Rear
Adm. J. J. (Jocko) Clark, commanding this task force, was called on to send out planes on a mercy search for seven ships driven from their course in the storm.

The ships were found to be safe.

ARE YOU CHEATING YOURSELF?

Are you one of the thousands of folks who for some mysterious and unknown reason are accumulating large amounts of cash in your savings accounts, safety deposit boxes, mattresses, etc.? Are you one of those who question the honor and dependability of Uncle Sam's promise written right on each bond?

If you believe in the cause for which our boys are fighting and dying you surely cannot challenge the integrity and dependability of your government's bond agreement, the very thing they are fighting to preserve. SO WHY HOLD CASH when this government of ours agrees to deliver cash on your bond any time when requested by you after sixty days from date of purchase, and even more dollars in return with each year you hold on? With a trip to your bank or financial institution cash is as readily obtainable on your war bond as it is on your payroll check.

Again the Question

Discharge Papers For Servicemen Are Recorded

County Auditor John Irwin has been notified by Secretary of the State Edward J. Hummel that all discharge papers for service men will be recorded free and a certified copy or certified photostatic copy will be issued free of charge. Irwin has been doing this favor for discharged veterans although he was not compelled to do so but that he had charged the 25 cent recording fee. Now, however, there will be no fee whatever for this service. Approximately 775 discharges have been recorded in Columbiana county thus far although there are many discharged veterans who have not yet had their discharge papers recorded.

It has been estimated that approximately one-half of the infants in the United States have had signs of rickets at some period of their growth.

LEAVES FROM A WAR CORRESPONDENT'S NOTEBOOK

by Hal Boyle

By BARBARA WACE (Subbing For Hal Boyle)

OSLO, Norway — Nobody cadges for coffee in Norway; newspapers tell parents to forbid children to ask "any gum chum?" But food is tighter and store shelves emptier than anywhere else I have been in northern Europe. Bronzed by the sun and full of happiness, Norwegians at first sight seem to belie the scanty rations of the last five years. But official reports state that the average loss of weight has been over 12 pounds per person.

Fish has saved Norway. But, an unrelieved fish diet, even for ten days which was all I was on, it can be monotonous and not very filling.

We had salmon and mackerel and trout which the Germans had kept for themselves, for five years the average Norwegian has subsisted on a diet of endless cod, and herring, dried, salt, fried, boiled, steamed, pressed and soaked in cod liver oil. But always herring. Even the tines are made into a kind of meat and sold for housewives to convert into cakes and much.

Breakfast, Supper Same
Breakfast and supper are exactly the same in Norway today. Cold fish, herring, cod, rollmops, and a little black bread. For lunch there will be hot fish of sorts if possible. When fish is in short supply, the Norwegians eat potatoes, the one vegetable to grow universally in the thin soil of that rocky country.

It's hard to make a "victory garden" on a bare mountain side, or under fir trees. Long winters leading into May have left the Norwegian housewife without green vegetables throughout most of the year. Besides fish, the civil population owes much to Denmark and Sweden, parcels from these countries, especially during the last two years, have been priceless in keeping the health of the children. Danish and Swedish soup, provided to school children every day during the term, are largely responsible for the relative good health of the younger generation.

Farmers, as elsewhere in liberated Europe, have had the berries. Many of them sold for high prices to the Germans. Many others, more patriotic, held back from the Germans and were able to barter with their neighbors and townspeople for commodities they lacked: clothes, hardware and so on. Since the liberation, the food supply has steadily improved. There is more fish, and better quality. There is more butter from Denmark. Certain civil affairs supplies have arrived. This week there was an issue of English biscuits. Above all, food coupons are being honored immediately, which seldom was the case during German occupation.

There is no tea. The coffee made of dried beans and peas, is impossible to describe.

Opportunities to buy to advantage are found daily in The News classified advertising columns.

WE FLEW Without GUNS

By Gen. Genovese

XIX

THE day after we wired Bond I met Tony Mercedes in Kunming. He was upset at the thought of our leaving so soon. "Hell," he said, "I'm only going to be here another month. My contract was up a long time ago, but I agreed to stay on until summer." He broke off until summer and snapped his fingers, abruptly, how about another hunting trip before you go? I'll get hold of Vince in Calcutta tomorrow or the next day and make the arrangements. We can spend a few days up in Tongass. Maybe we'll get a leopard or tiger or something. And you and Gingsiss can hang around Calcutta for a week or two after that, and by then I'll be ready to go back to the States with you."

I agreed for both Gingsiss and myself. Three days later Tony hopped out of an Army transport at Dunjan and announced that everything was set. Elephants and guides and all the paraphernalia for the safari would be ready for us at the Maharajah's lodge within two days.

As a vacation and a complete change from flying transports over the Hump, that hunting expedition turned out to be just the thing. We even found something to take the place of oxygen. (The only place that it had to be the Great White Trader's favorite brand of Scotch.) But as a game-bagging proposition, the trip was pretty much a bust. It was until the last day, that is.

Tony was on the leading elephant, Gingsiss rode the second and I followed up the rear as we moved slowly along the jungle trail.

We were passing through a kind of glen formed by lumpy, moss-covered rocks and overhanging trees that sprang up and behind them, when I heard the soft crackling of twigs underfoot of a habitant of the

I had my rifle in my hand but, knowing I wouldn't need it for these kittens, I laid it down and signaled for Gingsiss and Tony to come near. I figured we would each of us creep up very quietly and grab one of them. The native boys knew something was up by this time and they circled back to see what it was. Just as they arrived I sprang into the cave and caught one of the cubs in my hands. The other two let out yips and tried to scramble out of reach, but Gingsiss and Tony had followed my example, and in a matter of a few seconds we were standing in a group, panting and laughing, each of us with a startled and shivering baby leopard in our arms.

Sinclair Oils Secure First With Second Win Over Mullins

Tame First Round Champs Once Again 4-3 As Eagles Lose 6-3 To Leontonia Nine

There's an old saying that when you have someone's number you've got two strikes on him before he comes to the plate!

That seems to be the story with reference to the Sinclair Oils and Mullins in Class A softball.

Sinclair, the only team to beat Mullins so far this year, turned the trick again last night 4-3 to step into undisputed first place with four wins and no losses. It was Mullins' first defeat in three games this round and their second in 10 this season.

Leontonia won the second game from the Eagles 6-3.

Two factors decided the first game—and one of them wasn't pitching. Sinclairs' timely hitting in the third inning in the persons of Dave Ritchie, Bob Scullion and Keith Sidinger, was the most important feature.

Second most important to the outcome was the fielding of the Sinclairs and the errors committed by Mullins. Paced by Buck Ritchie, unquestionably the best fielding shortstop in the loop, the Oilers literally gobbled them up from the park dust, committing only one error. Mullins made five miscues—and they were costly ones.

Sinclair led off with a quick run in the first. Mullins came back strong in their half to score a pair. The Oilers, by virtue of Lee Schaffer's single, scored again in the second to tie it at 2-2.

In the third the three bangers, Ritchie, Scullion and Sidinger, tagged Lanney for three straight hits, netting the two runs which meant victory.

Mullins threatened several times, but the Oilers held. In the sixth Mullins tallied one when Francis Lanney stole home neatly with two out. After the spurt, in the third, Sinclair was through scoring, but they played an air-tight ball. They got only one hit after their second-inning spurt.

Neither pitcher turned in an exceptional game. Lanney gave up eight hits and Mutt Schaeffer allowed eight. Schaeffer, however, walked six and fanned one while Lanney swished a pair and walked but four, one intentionally.

In the other contest Leontonia's Boosters pulled John Clunen out of a bar and showed him off to be an effective pitcher as they trimmed the Eagles, still without a win, 6-3.

Leontonia banged out nine hits and made good use of 10 free passes offered up by Eagles' hurler Tom Minor.

The win brings Leontonia up to the par of Mullins, Demings and the Recreation, all with two wins and a single loss.

NEWSOM WINS 1ST GAME AND HOLMES' STREAK IS ENDED

Series of Hits Closes As Hank Wyss Puts Holmes Down

By JACK HAND.

Associated Press Sports Writer
Bobo Newsom still wears the pitchers' dunce cap and Tommy Holmes is teacher's pet in the hitting class, but the epidemic of "streakitis" that threatened to overshadow the major league pennant races is over.

It took Newsom from April 21 to July 12 to pick up a mound decision but he finally broke his 12-game losing dirge yesterday with a brilliant four-hit shutout of last year's champions St. Louis Browns, 4-0.

Holmes had hit safely in 37 consecutive games, breaking Rogers Hornsby's modern National league record, until his old Wrigley field jinx stopped him in the first game of a Braves-Cubs double-header that attracted a banner weekday turnout of 29,513 paid.

Holmes Stopped

Hank Wyss, one of the two Bruin hurlers who had horse-collared Holmes back on June 3, his last hitless day, snapped the season's most sensational spurt by sending the Boston outfielder to the dugout without a bingle in four trips to the plate.

Chicago triumphed behind Wyss, 6-1, stretching his victory string to 11, but that streak also was doomed as Boston swung back to even the series, 3-1, on Carden Gillenwater's two-run homer in the ninth. Holmes hit safely in the nightcap, a single preceding Gillenwater's clout.

The Braves got ample revenge for that 24-2 pasting in Boston in the second tilt because Claude Passeau's nine-game win streak also fell by the wayside.

Brooklyn broke out of a slump that cost them five of their last seven games by swamping Cincinnati, 11-5, in the late half of a two-night double-header after blowing the first one, 4-3, to the veteran Joe Bowman. The split left the Brooks only a game back of the first-place Cubs.

St. Louis was in and out of second place during the evening, moving up when Brooklyn lost and dropping back when Danny Gardella doubled home two runs in the 10th inning for New York's 9-7 margin over the Cardinals.

Bucs Win

Pittsburgh opened a long home stand which Frankie Frisch hopes will get the Pirates back into the race by shutting the door in the Phillies' face, 4-0. Nick Strincevich did the slugging and helped his own cause by belting home a pair of rallies.

Washington moved to within 3½ lengths of front-running Detroit on a night 4-2 edge over Chicago. It was Dutch Leonard's 10th decision but the knuckleball expert was not around at the finish as he injured his right hand fielding a hard-hit ball in the eighth inning.

Jim Wilson outpitched Hal Newhouse, the Tigers' ace, to give Boston a slim 2-1 shade and spoil the launching of Detroit's second eastern visit.

With Newsom's revival acting as a spur, the Athletics went into a complete form reversal and shut out the Browns twice, 4-0 and 11-0. Flores did the second job, a three-hitter.

The home run that built the Yankee stadium backfired on the New York Yanks as Cleveland poked three into the stands in grabbing a 7-4 decision. Mickey Rocco, Jeff Heath and Frankie Hayes did the honors for the Tribe.

A balloon crossed the English channel 160 years ago, 124 years before Blierot did it in an airplane. Jean Pierre Blanchard, a Frenchman, and Dr. John Jeffries, an American, made the crossing in 1785. In a balloon equipped with oars to aid in steering it through the air.

NELSON RALLIES TO BEAT TURNESA

Final Putt Makes Nelson's Win Possible Just As One 3 Years Ago

BY FRITZ HOWELL

DAYTON, July 13.—Three years ago at Atlantic City, Toledo's Byron Nelson stood on the 36th green, needing a 20-inch putt to defeat Jim Turnesa of Mammon, N. Y. He missed it, and Jim whipped him on the 37th.

Yesterday, at Moraine Country club, Nelson stood on the 36th green, needing a 20-inch putt to defeat Jim's brother, Mike.

He made it—although the ball went in the back door—and having whipped a case of coincidence-caused jitters, Nelson was a more-than-even favorite today to snatch the 27th PGA championship.

Up to the 36th hole, where he got his par to close out the match, Nelson had made what Prexy Ed Dudley said was the greatest three-hole finish in the last 20 years of PGA firing.

With four holes to go, Nelson was two down. Facing elimination, he called on that extra something that makes champions and whizzed in with a birdie, birdie and then a rousing eagle to go into the last hole one up.

"As I stood there facing that putt," Nelson said, "I relived that Atlantic City hole all over again. When the fall finally went in, I just wilted."

Nelson was just 10 strokes under par for the 36 holes.

Facing the Toledo umbrella man today is Denny Shute of Akron, O., 1936 and 1937 winner, who yesterday hung a 5 and 4 defeat on Bob Kepler of Columbus, coach of Ohio State's inter-collegiate champs.

Should Nelson get past Shute, as the experts predict, there's a chance he'll run into the tournament's Freshman, Claude Harmon of Grosse Pointe, Mich., in Saturday's warfare. Harmon reached the quarter-finals with a rousing 8 and 7 win over Jim Turnesa.

To reach that match, however, Harmon must sweep aside Ralph Hutchison of Bethlehem, Pa., who yesterday defeated Sterling Johnson of Norristown, Pa., one up.

In the upper bracket matches today, Ky. Laffoon of Miami, Okla., meets Clarence Doser of Hartsville, N. Y., while Vic Ghezzi of Atlantic City, 1941 champion, tangles with Sam Byrd of Redford, Mich., the former baseball player.

Laffoon and Doser emerged yesterday from extra-hole matches. Laffoon defeating Jack Groat of Hinsdale, Ill., in 38, and Doser taking a 37-hole verdict over Toney Penna of Dayton. Byrd eliminated Johnny Revolta of Evanston, Ill., 1935 champion, 2 and 1, while Ghezzi registered a two-up win over Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y.

The tournament ends Sunday.

BELL-DOYLE BOUT STADIUM FEATURE

Two Top Welterweights Will Meet Thursday In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, July 13.—The hottest fistic "natural" of the past several years will be waged at the Stadium next Thursday night when Jimmy Doyle and Tommy Bell, two of the three top-ranking welterweights of the day, clash in a 10-rounder that swart fans have been waiting to see for the past three months.

Bell, who lost a disputed decision to Jake La Motta in New York's Madison Square garden last Friday, has long been a favorite here as a result of his dynamic punching ability. He kayaked Chuck Hunter twice, Bobby Richardson and Maxie Berger and lost a close one to Ray (Sugar) Robinson in his local engagements.

On the other hand, Doyle required but one effort here to establish himself as a hot favorite. The California Irishman turned in one of the most pleasing exhibitions ever witnessed in a local ring early in April to take-down a win over Hunter and ever since then the Bell-Doyle bout has been in the making.

Odds Even

The bout has resolved itself into the biggest betting match held here since the days of Lem Franklin and Bob Pastor. Local pricemakers are quoting odds of "5 to 6 take-your-pick."

Right now Doyle and Bell are linked with Robinson as the three top men of the 147-pound division and it is the hope of Promoter Bob Brickman and his matchmaker, Larry Atkins, to pair the winner of Thursday's melee with Robinson. In fact, negotiations are under way for just such a bout.

Doyle and Bell are already on the ground working-out daily for the tussle. Neither will experience any difficulty in Making the prescribed weight of 147 pounds.

Matchmaker Atkins has lined-up a quartet of six-rounders and one four-canto fray for the supporting portion of the card. The first bout gets under way at 8:30 p. m.

ALL-STARS DEFEAT BOOSTERS 20 TO 8

Take Over First Place In Firestone Park League With Easy Win

It's beginning to look very much like the All-Stars are the major outfit in the Columbiana Softball league at Firestone park in Columbiana.

Last night they turned a one-sided 20-8 victory out of what was expected to be a tight battle with the Boosters, formerly a first-place contender. Now the All-Stars lead the loop and the Boosters and Case's, who last night trimmed the cellar-dwelling Winings 17-8, are tied for second and third places.

Carl Blosser did the hurling again for the All-Stars and twirled 12-hit ball, good enough to give his squad the margin easily. A. Gorcheff smacked out the season's second four-base hit and Carl Sheets, All-Star catcher, banged away three triples.

In the second fray the Clippers had an easy time with the last-place team, clubbing out 14 hits and garnering 17 runs.

Wednesday evening the Married women took a 33-15 lacing from the Single women. Jenny Lou Childers laced out a four-bagger. Miss Flanagan was the winning hurler and Mrs. Martin the loser. Leontonia's Boosters won 7-3 over the Columbiana Boosters Wednesday.

Brothers Are Reunited In Ring, Cancel Bout

HODGE, Mo.—The story of two American soldiers who refused to fight—in a boxing ring in the Philippines—came back to their home town today.

For months the brothers Sprague, Pvt. Leroy, Jr., and Paul E., had sought each other without success, each knowing the other was somewhere in the islands.

One recent night a friend of Leroy's asked him if he would box at an entertainment program. When Leroy walked into the ring, the man in the opposite corner was brother Paul.

The bout was canceled in favor of a reunion.

FORMER STARS WITH DORMONT

Visiting Team To Clash In Afternoon With Salem Athletics

Honus Wagner, Paul Waner and Joe Vitelli, all former big leaguers with the Pittsburgh Pirates, will be with the Dormont All-Star outfit from the Greater Pittsburgh league to play at Centennial park at 2:30 p. m. Sunday against the Salem Athletics.

The contest has been arranged here to benefit a fund to improve the Centennial park baseball diamond. All money earned over and above expenses is to be turned over to the park commission for improvements. The project has been approved by Mayor R. R. Johnson. Wagner, one of baseball's old-time greats, will probably not play here, but acts in a coaching capacity and may possibly pinch hit before the game closes.

Vitelli May Pitch

Outfielder Waner plays the first game in a right field position. Vitelli, until a month ago a member of the Pirates staff, is expected to hurl. He has pitched with Pittsburgh for the past two years.

If Vitelli is not on the mound Jack Flynn a Pittsburgh product will toss them in. Malt Kern will catch, Sally Van Jour, former Mid-Atlantic leaguer, will work at third base and Paul Debar, previously of the New York Pony league, will be at short.

The outfit has won 23 games and lost five this year. They are now leading the Greater Pittsburgh Class A league and recently defeated the North Side Civics in Youngstown with Vitelli on the mound.

According to statistics, single persons do not live as long as married people.

3 Soldiers Drowned, Seven Are Missing In Parachute Jump

CAMP GORDON JOHNSTON, Fla., July 13.—Tropical-like Dog Island, testing ground for Army paratroopers from Fort Benning, Ga., had its first tragedy yesterday with three young paratroopers drowned and seven missing in the Gulf of Mexico after a simulated combat jump.

More than 1,000 paratroopers had previously made the leap over the five-mile-long gulf island, four miles off Carrabelle, Fla. This is part of the preparatory training.

The troopers, students in advanced specialist training, were part of a group of 116 who flew from Benning yesterday to jump. All were equipped with parachutes and life belts.

Eight C-47 troop carrier planes were flying at 800 feet and the men jumped as they circled the island. Eyewitnesses said several of the men landed in the water neighboring the island.

Crash boats rescued several who had missed the field. A naval blimp, army planes and additional craft from Camp Gordon Johnston's fleet joined in the search for the missing.

Unemployment Claims Show Rise During June

COLUMBUS, July 13.—New claims for unemployment compensation in June jumped 142 per cent over the May figure, Charles H. Jones, administrator of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, reported today. He credited the sharp rise to cutbacks and production adjustments.

Jones said claims last month totaled 6,618, with 2,056 received from the Youngstown area, while large numbers also were received from Cleveland, Toledo and Warren. He asserted layoffs at the General Fireproofing Co., and Truscon Steel works chiefly were responsible for the Youngstown figure.

Benefit payments during June increased 66 per cent to $90,706. The average payment per benefit recipient was $15.43, another record.

Jones pointed out, however, that last month's volume was still more than 70 per cent below pre-war claims.

Lieut. Mauro Given Army Commendation

LEETONIA, July 13.—Lieut. Guy J. Mauro, former Leetonia solicitor, has received the following citation from Lt. Col. Fulton G. Gale, Jr.

"It is with sincere thanks and appreciation that I commend you for your exceptionally outstanding performance of duty as acting military governor of Markt-Am-Inn, Germany. Without hesitation you cheerfully accepted a new and difficult assignment and by application of your personal attributes, coupled with good judgment and tenacity of purpose, you relieved me of the many responsibilities. The tact and diplomacy in the handling of both the German and Displaced populace, reflects great credit upon yourself as an officer in the army of the United States."
